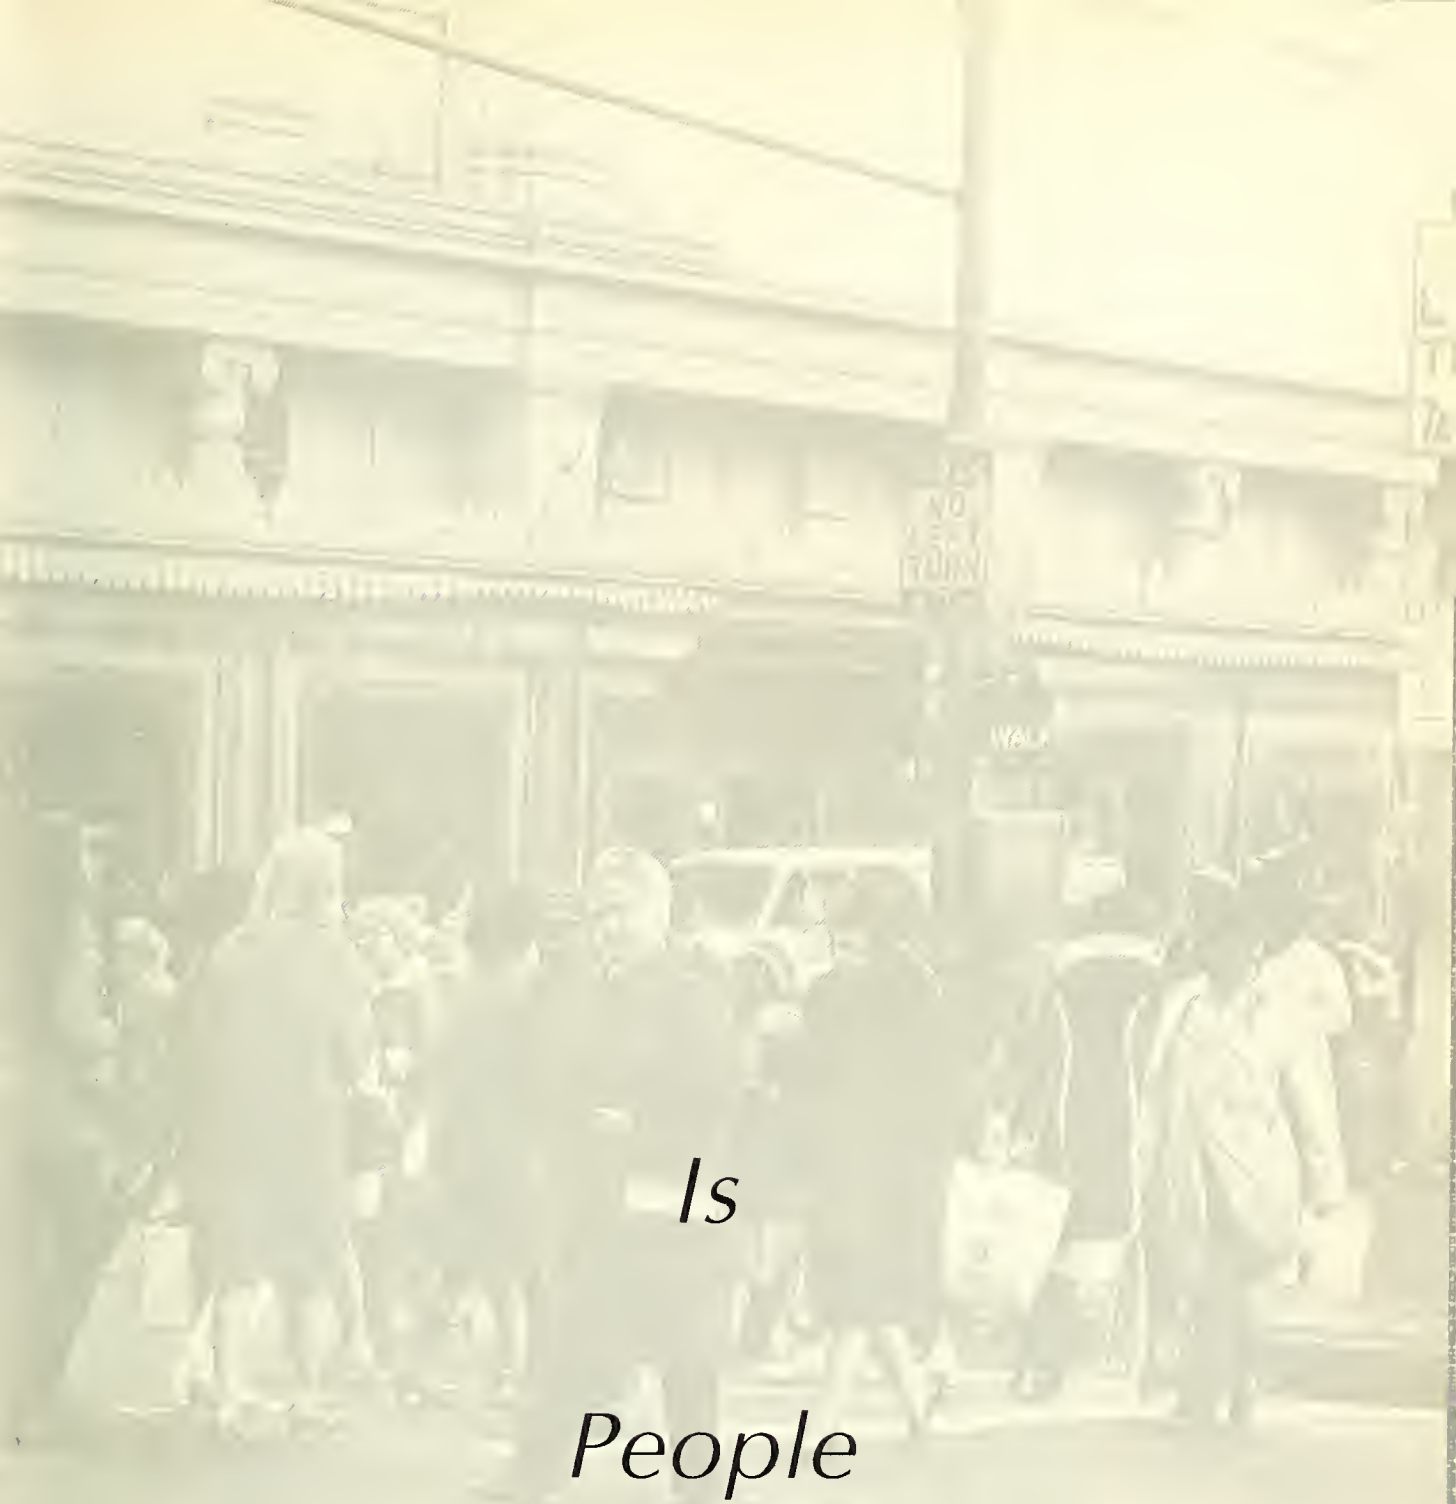
Nursing



Is

People

The sunlight still breaks each day . . .
As one hand reaches out to another . . .
People live lives of happiness sadness frustration contentment

Leaving their imprints within our thoughts . . .
People.

Alone, no . . .
Well, perhaps at times.
But always having others . . .
People.

We shrink
We grow
We faint
We fail
We succeed

We are courageous.

The spirit within comes without.
Involvement . . .
People.

We fall,

We rise,

We laugh,

With,
at,
about,
for,
but,

Mostly with People!

A Nurse is human
An integral part of the whole that inhabits the earth.
People.

Ring the bell
for the meeting.
For in that coming together,
We experience those precious seconds and generate memorable meaningful moments with People.

And life goes on.
and we try to change
those around us to fit some ideal that has formed within us.
Til we find that often,
it is we who must change
to become better People.

Every human relationship should be a helping relationship.
Because people are worth helping.
Because people are helped by helping.
Why?
People Need People

Nursing
is People,

How true . . .
How true . . .

For to nurse is to care about your fellowman . . .
People!

HEALTH SCIENCES LIBRARY
UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND
BALTIMORE

You may adopt as your motto, "Where there is life . . . Make it worth living."

Isn't that the greatest tribute we can pay To
People?

Life is tragic and painful.
People are angry and hurting but touching those lives we realize The internal, wonderful worth of People.

People are beautiful and joy filled . . .
They help and heal
The ills within us all.
We make people happy . . .

They reciprocate.
Oh, People!
You're Great! People!

Know the painful cry; the joyous cry.
Be aware of the need.
Walk into the lives of people.
Give them your hand.
Pray they take it . . .
Be glad they do . . .
Try again if the answer is "no."
whatever, Wherever,
Give your best to People,
Knowing that Nursing Is People.

Why can't I get a Patient that talks!

Listen Nurse

I was hungry and could not feed myself.
You left my food tray out of reach on my bedside table,
Then you discussed my nutritional needs during a nursing conference.

I was thirsty and helpless, but you forgot to ask the attendant to refill my water pitcher.
You later charted that I refused fluids.

I was lonely and afraid, but you left me alone because I was so cooperative and never asked for anything.
I was in financial difficulties and in your mind I became an object of annoyance.

I was a nursing problem and you discussed the theoretical basis of my illness.
And you do not even see me.

I was thought to be dying and,
Thinking I could not hear, you said you hoped I would not die before it was time to finish your day because you had an appointment at the beauty parlor before your evening date.

You seem so well educated, well spoken, and so very neat in your spotless
unwrinkled uniform,
But when I speak you seem to listen but do not hear me.

Help me, care about what happens to me
I am so tired, so lonely and so very afraid.
Talk to me - reach out to me - take my hand,
Let what happens to me matter to you.

PLEASE, NURSE, LISTEN.

Ruth Johnson, RN.

Take Time to READ . . .
It is the fountain of wisdom.

Team 4

Take Time to PRAY . . .
It is the greatest power on earth.

Team 5

Take Time to BE FRIENDLY . . . It is the road to happiness.

Team 6

Take Time to LAUGH . . .
It is the music of the soul.

Team 7

Take Time to GIVE . . .
It is too short a day to be selfish.

Team 8

Take Time to WORK . . .
It is the price of success.

If it's ever so small the part you take,
The world has need of you.
Be it big or little the effort you make,
The world has need of you.
If it's only a thought you give by the way,
If it's only love's word you pause to say,
It's a part that nobody else can play,
So the world has need of you.

By your smile you can change another's life;
By a word you can bring peace out of strife;
Then lift your head and never say die;
Count every blessing, stop every sigh.
Get busy ... don't let a chance slip by,
For the world has need of you.

If

If you can keep your head when all about you are losing theirs and blaming
you.
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you.
But make allowance for their doubting too,
Or being lied about, but don't deal in lies Or being hated don't give way to hating
And yet don't look too good, or talk too wise.

If you can dream and not make dreams your master
If you can think and not make thoughts your aim
If you can meet with triumph and disaster and treat these two imposters just the same
If you can bear to hear the same truth you've spoken Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools
Or watch the things you gave, your life to brokers and build them up with worn out tools.

If you can force your heart,
nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone
And so hold on when there is nothing in you Except the will that says to you "Hold on"
If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue
Or walk with kings "doctors" nor lose the common touch
If neither foes nor loving friends don't hurt you
If all men count with you but none too much
If you can fill the unforgiving minute with sixty seconds of distance run.
Yours is the Earth and Everything that's in it.
And which is more you'll be a "nurse my friend."

ADVERTISERS

Many people were influential in compiling this yearbook. Deadlines were met only through the help of dedicated workers. I appreciated the effort everyone extended to make this yearbook a memorable record of our Nursing School.

I would like to extend recognition to Mr. Pat Mahoney, our Taylor Publishing Representative and to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Spears, our Photographers, and to Miss Toma Guberski our Yearbook Advisor, for their assistance. Cathy Weaver, Kathy Whittaker and Donna Feickert composed the poem in the introductory section. My Financial Manager, Sharon Wood, and my Secretary, Chris Ratcliffe, also deserve a heartfelt thanks.

Life in Baltimore may not be at all what we dreamed of -- but life rarely is what we expect. Nursing is an ever-expanding endeavor into the lives of others and into ourselves. We, the staff, hope you find this experience a worthwhile one. Your choice of nursing as a form of self development will hopefully provide you with a challenging life. But also remember, Nursing is not only a professional occupation --

Nursing is People.

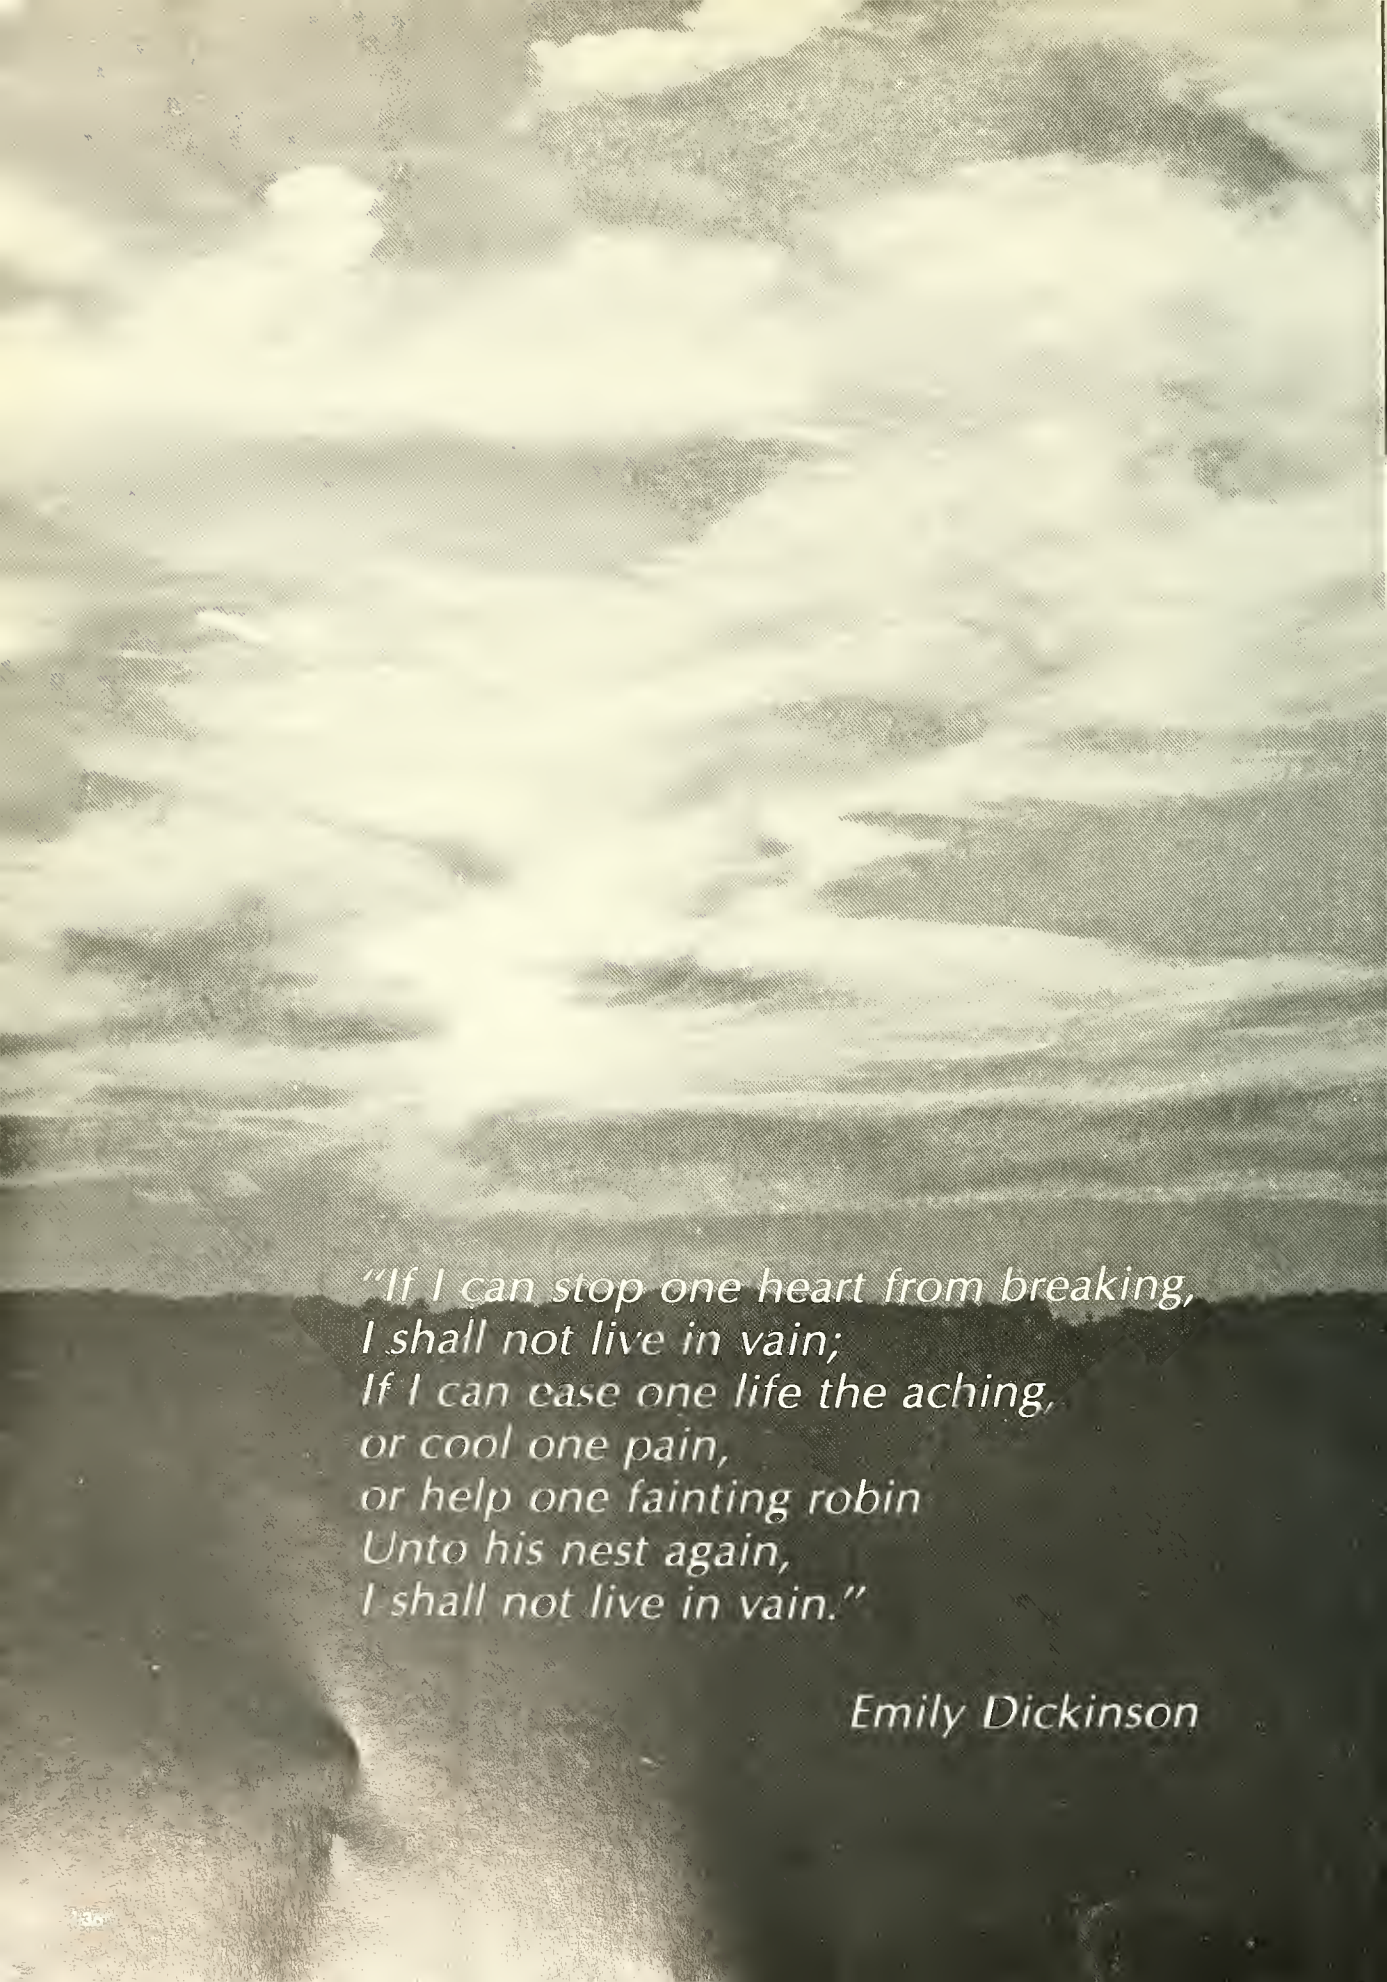
YOU

ARE.

"Are you willing to see that your fellow men are just as real as you are and try to look beyond their faces into their hearts hungry for joy? Are you willing to admit that probably the only reason for your existence is not what you are going to get out of life, but what are you going to put into it?"

Dr. Tom Dooley



"If I can stop one heart from breaking,
I shall not live in vain;
If I can ease one life the aching,
or cool one pain,
or help one fainting robin Unto his nest again,
I shall not live in vain."
